Reflections

REVEREND MOTHER SAUQUES

Superior General of the Congregation of Christian Education

We welcome Reverend Mother General to the United States and to our school. Her visit will be a happy memory for us. May St. Genevieve's in the "Land of the Sky" hold a warm place in her heart.

Dedication

To dear Mother Potts, our ray of sunshine and our guiding star, we dedicate our annual . . . . she has christened our ship; she has launched us on our voyage of life.

Reverend Nicholas A. Liston, M. A.

Chaplain

School Song

St. Genevieve's, in thee we glory!
Yes, all thy children love thee well.
We hail thy name in song and story;
To all the world thy praise we tell.
To all the world thy praise we tell.
In chorus clear our voices ringing
Awake the echoes far and near,
Our hearts find joy and gladness here,
Our love we show with happy singing.

CHORUS

Hurrah, Saint Genevieve's!
Thy star forever leads.
With joyful song we hail thee and say,
"Saint Genevieve's for aye!"

Thy gentle counsels always heeding
United for thy cause we stand,
Our loyal hearts for thee are pleading
Oh, may we be thy faithful band.
Oh, may we be thy faithful band.
Thy star aloft is ever leading
Its golden rays light up our way
With trusting faith we'll always pray,
Saint Genevieve's, for thy succeeding.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of '51, being of comparatively sound mind and body and realizing that "all good things must come to an end", do hereby will and entrust the following to our treasured friends at S.G.P.

To Reverend Mother, Mother Potts, and all the members of an untiring faculty we leave our best love, sweetest thoughts, and undying hope that they'll have less trouble with the next Senior classes than they have had with us.

Though at this point we should like to leave our Senior classroom to the Juniors, we cannot since the classroom is too small—nevertheless we will leave you with the hope that whatever classroom you may be in, you'll have as much fun (amid the struggles of Senior English) as we have had.

To you Sophomores we leave the niches in the Hall of Fame where our trophies would have gone had it not been for your managing to win them first.

To the Freshmen we leave the following three years with the wish that they will grow to love St. Genevieve's as much as we.

The individual members of the class wish to make known the following bequests.

I, Betty de Beilby, bequeath my history book, notes, and current events maps to Joan Chu; my hair twisting habit I leave to June Blanton.

I, Ann Clarke, do will my diet to Sue Edgerton and my beloved seat in American History to Barbara Burgess.

I, Barbara Garland, do leave my Latin 2 book to Lolly Speir and to Barbara Brittner my fickleness.

I, Emily Gordon, do relegate my daily letter to Judy Fuldner and my Yankee accent to Pat Stanley.

I, Betty Harris, entrust my lipstick to Pat Hertzler and my love of camp life to Sara Buford.

I, Bette Huntsman, pass on my everlasting bracelets to Rose Armstrong and to Emma Lee Higdon my ability to translate Spanish.

I, Betts Justice, bequeath my collection of frat pins to Margie Hartshorn and my laugh to Rosemary Whitmire.

I, Sheila McCabe, do leave my absentmindedness to Audrey Noland and my versatile hair to Margaret Miles.

I, Marilyn Romieux, relegate my bangs to Sally Hodges and to my sister Jackie I leave my American History book.

I, Catherine Russell, bequeath my combs to Margaret Frith and my "happy" week ends to Nancy Buran and Jeanette Uzzell.

I, Freda Siler, will to Pat Stevens my football and my corner room to Ann Herlong.

I, Ida Schilthuis, leave my brains to Keller Cushing and my shoes to Molly Kate Thomas.

I, Cockie Smith, will my love for Darlington to Betsy Webb and my geometry book to any Sophomore who will have it.

I, Jane Swicegood, bequeath my eyelashes to Nancy Schwoyer and to Babs Blomberg my laughing tears.

I, Wilhelmina Vander Kaaden, leave my algebra teacher to St. Genevieve's and to Joan Chu my name.

I, Mabel White, will my famous pocket-book to Sally Carter and to Betsy Colburn I leave my passion for wearing flowers.

And now that the gangplank is about to be pulled up, we herewith subscribe our signatures before leaving.

THE SENIORS.

This was published and declared by the said testators to be their last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at their request have subscribed our names thereto as witnesses, and in their presence and in the presence of each other.

Launched!

Class Prophecy

While cleaning up the office of my employer the other day (January 30, 1975) I came across many scattered papers. It seems that while Freda Siler is writing Pulitzer Prize novels and winning Oscars for her plays she is also compiling a book of graduates of Saint Genevieve's in 1951. It appears all of them are material for "Who's Who in America."

Barbara Garland is the first woman Treasurer of the United States. She is helping Freda with this book—that is, she has an unlimited supply of money to pay for any and everything.

Looking down the list I see Ann Clarke has taken over the King Ranch in Texas. The name has been changed to the "Southern Belle" and she commutes between this place and San Francisco so she can also operate her steamship lines to the Orient.

Bette (Huntsman) Marlowe and Bus are making circus history. They own and operate the "Great B & B Big Top" that is now touring the world with an epoch making performance. They are supplied with wild beasts of every form and description by "Bring-Them-Back-Alive Ida." She captures the unsuspecting animals and then transports them to their winter training quarters in her rocket plane, "The Schilthuis."

Betty Harris, a world renowned woman athlete, won the World Series last year with a beautiful home run. She has just regained the spotlight in the world of sports by being the first woman to win the trans-Atlantic swim.

Betts Justice is the Lodge Master of the R.O.F.P.A. (Royal Order of Fraternity Pins in America.) Her collection was so outstanding that the government has built a museum to house the main pins and has appointed guards to protect the jewels from thieves.

Sheila McCabe and Einstein are having a series of debates over the proposed Peace Plans for World War VIII. The only trouble is that Sheila cannot always remember which side of the argument she is on and sometimes she helps her opponent win.

Mabel White is the owner and personal fitter of the "Clank and Chatter" Company—a huge false teeth concern located in Dentures, Tennessee.

Cockie Smith has taken Carol Channing's leading role in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." Cockie has been keeping a record of her flowers and fan mail for years and she says it is so absolutely true that she has no worry about her part at all.

Jane Swicegood, although not as prosperous as Cockie, lives with her in their Manhattan tower. She is an internationally famous blues singer. Her latest hit song is "If I Were Taller I Could Face the World," written by Emily Gordon. Emily, after attempting both touring the country as a ukelele player and acting in Shakespearean drama, has finally arrived at the door of success by writing blues.

Willie Vander Kaaden is now president of the Coca-Cola Company. She has bought enough cokes to buy out the company. I knew she liked them, but that surely surprised me.

Betty de Beilby has tried deep sea diving for several years, but it seems she got too lonesome, so now she is peddling newspapers on a street corner in New York.

Marilyn Romieux's prep days at Saint Genevieve's have paid dividends, for now she is the French governess of two wild Indian children. Their wealthy parents are sending them to Europe in Marilyn's care so that they can have a little rest.

I am the only one in the class who is not a financial success. I tried various ways to acquire money, games of chance, horse racing, and so forth. I even tried to marry money—no success, so now I have to clean offices for my living.

The char woman,

CATHARINE RUSSELL.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate;
I am the captain of my soul.
